

Oma Savings Bank Plc's Corporate Governance Statement

Oma Savings Bank Plc (hereinafter OmaSp or Company) complies with the Finnish Corporate Governance Code approved by the Securities Market Association and valid at any given time. This Corporate Governance Statement has been drawn up in accordance with the Corporate Governance Code, which took effect on 1 January 2020. The Company has also published a separate Remuneration Statement (<https://sijoittaminen.omasp.fi/en/remuneration>) in accordance with the Corporate Governance Code. The Corporate Governance Code is available in its entirety on the Securities Markets Association's website at www.cgfinland.fi.

This statement, which has been approved by the Company's Board of Directors, is published separately from the report of the Board of Directors. This statement and other information required by the Corporate Governance Code, the Company's Financial Statements, the report of the Board of Directors, and the Auditor's Report for 2022 are available on the Company's website at <https://sijoittaminen.omasp.fi/>.

In its decision-making and governance, the Company complies with the with existing legislation, OmaSp's Articles of Association, the charters of OmaSp's Board of Directors and its committees and the rules and guidelines of Nasdaq Helsinki Ltd.

Efficient management of insider issues of a publicly listed Company requires that insider administration is arranged in a consistent and reliable manner. The obligations concerning the arrangement of insider administration are binding to publicly listed companies. OmaSp complies with the insider guidelines of Nasdaq Helsinki Ltd (Helsinki Stock Exchange). In addition, the Company has internal Insider Guidelines approved by the Board of Directors based on the guidelines of Helsinki Stock Exchange. Compliance with the insider guideline, monitoring the notification obligation, and maintaining the insider registers are the responsibility of OmaSp's Chief Legal Officer.

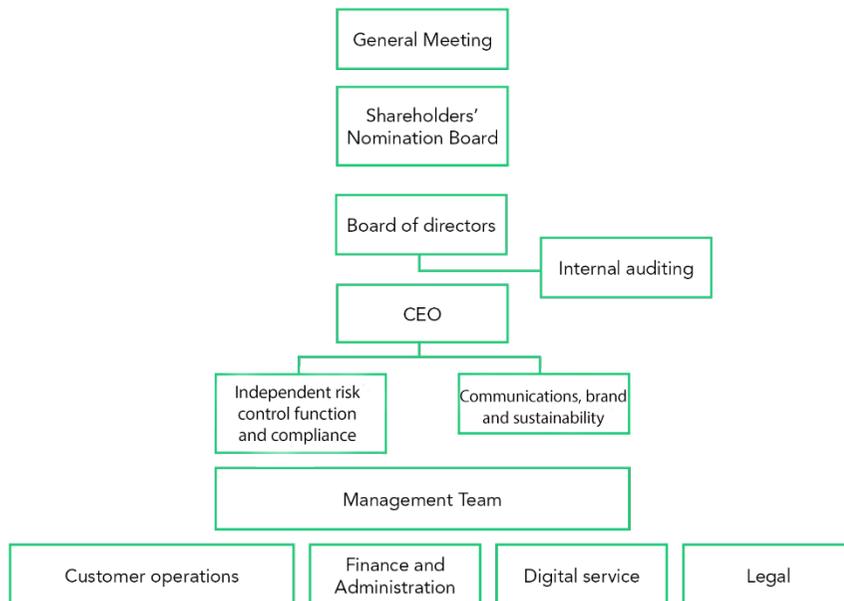

1 Group structure

The Group's parent Company is Oma Savings Bank Plc, whose domicile is in Seinäjoki. Oma Savings Bank Group comprises the parent company Oma Savings Bank Plc, and its subsidiary Real estate company Lappeenrannan Säästökeskus (100% holding). In addition, the Group has associated companies GT Invest Oy (48.7% holding) and City Kauppapaikat Oy (42.1% holding) as well as joint ventures and joint operations SAV-Rahoitus Oyj (48.2% holding), Figure Taloushallinto Oy (25% holding), Deleway Projects Oy (49% holding) and Housing company Seinäjoen Oma Savings Bank house (25.5% holding).

2 Governance structure

OmaSp's administration, management and control are divided between the General Meeting, the Board of Directors, and the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). Internal audit is the responsibility of the internal audit unit, which operates under the Board of Directors. External audit is the responsibility of auditors. The CEO is in charge of the day-to-day operations with the assistance of the Management Team.

3 General Meeting

OmaSp's highest decision-making body is the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Annual General Meeting is held once a year before the end of June on a day specified by the Board of Directors.

The Annual General Meeting makes decisions pertaining to, among other things, the election of the Board members, the auditor and deputy auditor, remuneration paid to these, validating the financial statements and consolidated financial statements, discharging from liability the Board members and the CEO, and the use of the profit shown on the balance sheet. Other matters to be discussed at the Annual General Meeting according to the Limited Liability Companies Act or matters requested to be addressed by a shareholder in accordance with the Finnish Companies Act may also be discussed at the meeting. An Extraordinary General Meeting is held when the Board of Directors considers it necessary, or when it must be held pursuant to the law. In order to ensure interaction between shareholders and the Company's governing bodies and to implement the shareholders' right to request information, the CEO, and the chairman and the members of the Board of Directors will attend the General Meetings. Board member candidate must attend the General Meeting that decides on the election. Each Company share entitles to one vote at a General Meeting.

The Annual General Meeting of the Company was held on 30 March 2022. The meeting was held by exceptional meeting procedures under the Provisional Act (677/2020) to limit the spread of corona pandemic. Shareholders of the Company and their agents may attend the meeting and exercise their shareholder rights only by voting in advance and by submitting counterproposals and questions in advance and could not attend the General Meeting in person at the venue of the meeting. Shareholders enrolled at the Annual General Meeting had the opportunity to monitor the Annual General Meeting via direct remotely. Shareholders thus following the meeting were not considered to attend the General Meeting and were therefore not entitled to question or vote during the General Meeting.

4 Board of Directors

Under the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors of OmaSp has a minimum of five and a maximum of eight regular members and a maximum of two deputy members. The General Meeting decides on the number of members on the Board of Directors, elects the Board members, and decides on their remuneration based on the proposal of the Nomination Committee, which consists of representatives of the shareholders. The term of office of the members of the Board of Directors begins at the closing of the Annual General Meeting and ends at the closing of the next Annual General Meeting. The Board elects a chairman and deputy chairman from among its members.

According to the Board of Directors, all members of the Company's Board of Directors are independent of the Company and all members of the Board are independent of the Company's significant shareholders. None of the Board members are and have not been an employee of the Company. Jarmo Partanen served as a full-time Chairman of the Board of Directors in 2014-2019.

Members of the Board of Directors of OmaSp and executive directors meet the trustworthiness and qualification requirements laid down in Chapter 7, Section 4, of the Credit Institutions Act.

Diversity of the Board of Directors

OmaSp's Board of Directors has approved the diversity principles for the Board. OmaSp's aim is to promote the election of the most qualified members of the Board of Directors while ensuring equal opportunities for candidates of both genders to be elected. Both genders are represented in the Board of Directors, and candidates for Board membership are appointed in accordance with this equality goal so that, in the election, attention is paid to the added value brought by the members to the composition of the Board in terms of maintaining and developing sufficient diversity, among other aspects. Diversity is maintained and developed by ensuring broad competence and experience, regional representation and sufficient representation of both genders and different age groups among the nominees.

Women make up 28.5 percent of Board members.

Duties of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors represents the Company and takes care of the administration of the Company and the trustworthy and appropriate organisation of its operations. The Board of Directors ensures that the Company has business strategies, operating principles and an appropriate organisational structure, and an authorisation system and that the executive directors of the Company are competent, trustworthy and suitable to their tasks.

The Board shall see to it that the Company has sufficient risk management systems and ensure that business risks are identified and evaluated. The Board of Directors shall approve risk-taking principles, establish the procedures used to mitigate risks, and oversee compliance with these. The Board shall ensure that internal control and internal audit are appropriately organised. In its activities, the Board complies with the charter it has approved. In the charter, the tasks of the Board of Directors, its chairman and members, organising the meetings, and evaluation of the Board of Directors' work are described in more detail. The charter of the Board of Directors is accessible on the Company's website at <https://sijoittaminen.omasp.fi/en/board-and-its-committees>.

Meetings of the Board of Directors

The Board held 19 meetings during the financial year, of which 8 were e-mail meetings. It has also been possible to attend in meetings remotely.

All board members attended each meeting.

Notifications by executives of the Company

The Company maintains a list of executives and their related parties. The Company's executives shall inform the Company of their related parties upon taking on their responsibilities and of any changes in their related parties immediately and no later than three days from the change.

The Company executives and their related parties are subject to trading restrictions applying to Company shares, and the executives' and their related parties' notification obligations concerning such transactions are described in the Company's Insider Guidelines.

9 Main features of the internal control and risk management systems connected with the financial reporting process

Internal control refers to measures that ensure the achievement of strategic objectives, the efficiency of resources, the smooth running of information and the reliability of information. Internal control ensures that risk management is continuously adequate in various areas. Compliance with regulations and risk awareness are reflected in all decision-making and are part of corporate culture and responsible operations. Internal control also extends to ensuring compliance with business principles.

The Company's Board of Directors has overall responsibility for arranging internal control, and the Board regularly evaluates the effectiveness and efficiency of internal control based on the reporting of the compliance function, the independent risk assessment function and the internal audit. The principles of internal control approved by the Board of Directors outline the totality and objectives of the control system. The control principles are supplemented by function-specific control descriptions and guidelines.

10 Financial reporting

In terms of financial reporting, the principles for internal control are clear roles and responsibilities within the organisation. As regards internal control, clear responsibilities between the Company and service providers and efficient procedures for monitoring processes are key. OmaSp has drawn up reporting practices for the implementation of financial reporting. In order to ensure the accuracy of financial reporting, internal control processes have been established.

The unit of Financial Administration is responsible for the financial reporting of the Oma Savings Bank Group as a whole and for external and internal accounting. Financial Administration is responsible for, among other things, the Group's financial reporting, the Group's accounting principles and maintenance thereof, drawing up and updating the Group's forecasting models, and the Company's internal financial reporting and its monitoring. The Group's reporting is centralised to Financial Administration.

The bookkeeping of OmaSp is handled by Figure Taloushallinto Oy, which is partly owned by the Company. Purchased services include basic bookkeeping, drawing up the consolidated financial statements according to IFRS along with producing the numeric content for the notes to the financial statements, securities ledger and purchase ledger accounting, and fixed assets bookkeeping. These services are produced in accordance with service agreements, and they comply with the guidelines and regulations of the Finnish Financial Supervisory Authority and other authorities. The Company holds regular meetings with the service providers to develop the collaboration and monitor their operations. OmaSp's Management Team and the Board of Directors receive regular management reports, which cover reports for the period, forecasts, and analyses of deviations by earnings item and balance sheet item. The reporting framework also includes key figures that are to be reported.

Controllers involved in the Group's financial reporting do not participate in business activities or making business decisions. Controllers report to OmaSp's CFO, who is a member of the Management Team.

11 Functions independent of business operations

The Company has arranged functions that are independent of business operations to ensure efficient and comprehensive internal control as follows:

- Independent risk control function
- Ensuring regulatory compliance (Compliance function)
- Internal audit function.

The Company's Board of Directors has appointed the persons in charge of these functions. In this way, the Board of Directors has ensured that the risk control function, compliance function, credit risk evaluation function and internal audit function have adequate and competent personnel resources with respect to the nature, scope and diversity of the Company's operations.

Risk control

Risk control function is an essential part of internal control. The purpose of function is to ensure that risks arising from the Company's business are identified, assessed and quantified, and that the risks are monitored as part of day-to-day business management.

The Board of Directors approves the operating principles of the function, and the function reports on its activities to the Board of Directors and executive management. The Company maintains and develops risk control functions to ensure that all new, previously unidentified essential risks will be covered by risk management.

Compliance

The compliance function assists the Board of Directors and executive management in managing risks related to non-compliance. The Board of Directors has adopted the goals and responsibilities of the function by approving its operating principles and confirming its annual plan each year.

The compliance function supervises and regularly assesses the adequacy and efficiency of all business areas' activities and procedures through which the Company ensures compliance with regulations. The function assesses and ensures that the procedures and instructions are appropriate with respect to legislation and the requirements arising from other regulations. The function evaluates the adequacy of the measures taken to rectify the deficiencies identified as regards compliance with regulations and the implementation of equal treatment of customers. The function works in co-operation with the internal audit and risk control functions and monitors the execution of the recommendations based on internal audit's observations.

The Compliance function reports to the Board of Directors on its observations biannually.

Internal audit

Internal audit refers to evaluation and assurance activities that are objective and independent of business operations.

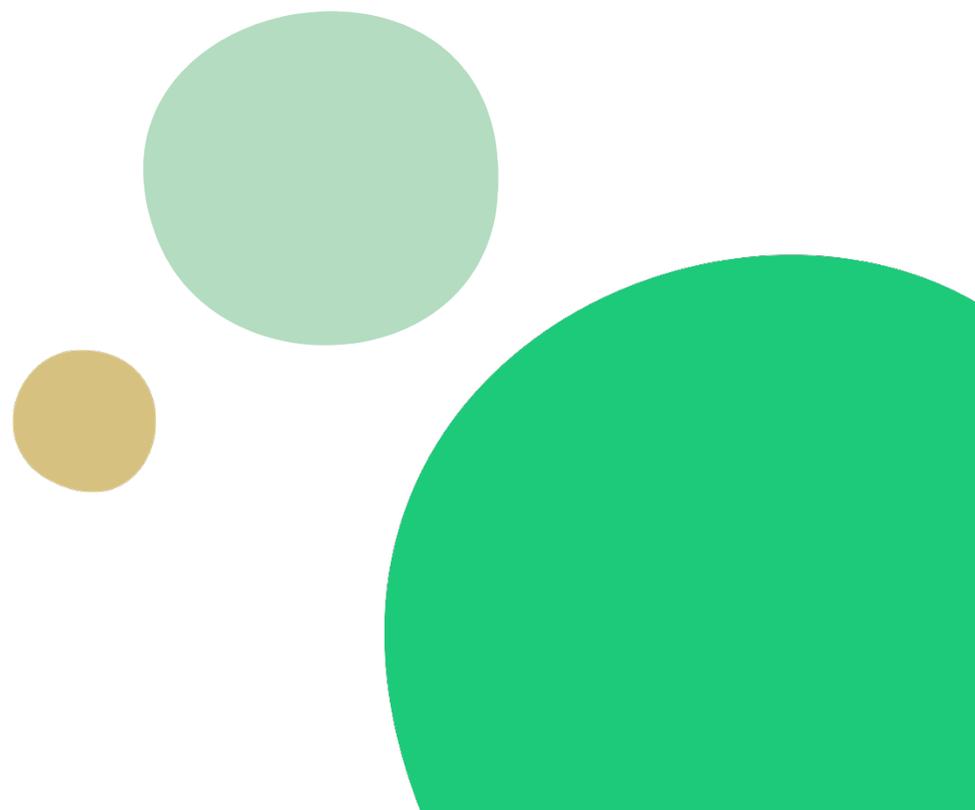

The Board of Directors decides annually on the operating principles of the internal audit and the audit plan. The internal audit reports at least annually and, if necessary, more frequently on its most important findings, the follow-up of measures and the implementation of the audit plan directly to the Board.

12 Related party information

Related parties refer to key management personnel in OmaSp and their family members, subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures, joint operations, and companies in which the key management personnel have control or significant influence and entities that have significant influence in OmaSp. The key personnel are the members of the Board of Directors, the CEO and the Deputy CEO, and the rest of the Management Team. Loans and guarantees granted to related parties are granted on terms and conditions that apply to similar customer loans and guarantees. Employee benefits are respected for related parties working in OmaSp. Transactions with related parties are part of the Company's normal business operations and are carried out in accordance with the agreed decision-making procedure and taking into account possible conflicts of interest. Related party transactions are reported in the notes to the financial statements (G34).

13 Auditors

According to the Articles of Association, at minimum one (1) and at maximum two (2) auditors shall be elected for the Company. The auditors shall be Authorised Public Accountants approved by Finland Chamber of Commerce. If only one auditor is elected and this is not from an authorised public accountants firm approved by Finland Chamber of Commerce, a deputy auditor shall also be elected. The auditors are chosen for their assignment until further notice. The auditor of OmaSp is the firm of auditors KPMG Oy Ab (Business ID 1805485-9), with Fredrik Westerholm, M.Sc., APA, as the auditor in charge until 31 of May 2022 and after that Tuomas Ilveskoski, M.Sc., APA. The auditor's term of office begins at the close of the Annual General Meeting and continues until the end of the next Annual General Meeting. The Company discloses the fees payable to the firm of auditors in the notes to the financial statements (G22).
